Mrs. Billing Activities

Complete the following journal activities and submit them via google class room.

Journaling Activity #1

Think about a time when a parent, teacher, or friend criticized you. What happened? How did this make you feel? How did you handle it? Are you proud of the way you handled it? What might you do differently if something like this happens in the future? Did this experience change the way you offer feedback to others?

Journaling Activity #2

We all communicate differently with different people in our lives. Does the way you communicate (or say things) affect how others perceive you? Explain.

Journaling Activity #3

Many people dream of being successful, but their actions can sometimes hold them back. What are some ways you can be sure that your actions help you to achieve your goals in life?

Journaling Activity# 4

Think of a time when you could have been a better communicator or a better listener. Describe the situation. What happened? What is more important – communicating in a way that is easy for you or communicating in a way so that others can understand you? Is there a difference? Explain.

Journaling Activity #5

Give an example of a time when you really thought you knew what you were supposed to do but did not. What happened?
