

John Wolfe

January 30, 2016

John Wolfe

John Wolfe earned his stripes at Ironton as the longest reigning booster member.

A graduate of Ironton High School, John returned to Ironton to practice law in 1970 and promptly joined the Tiger Clan. He has been a member ever since serving as president, vice-president on numerous occasions, as well as secretary.

Wolfe came to the Tiger Clan with less than $100 in the treasury. The group has grown over the years and now offers more than a half-dozen athletic/academic scholarships.

The Jack Wolfe Award was established in 1975 by Wolfe's mother and some friends including a man living in Florida who donated $10,000 to the scholarship fund.

The John Wolfe Award was founded in 2012 by Wolfe's wife, Jan, and sons Jay, and Doug.

Mr. Wolfe has also served on the Ironton Board of Education and with the Chamber of Commerce. He once served on the board of directors for the Tri-River Council of Campfire Girls, even though he does not have a daughter.

